

Guard units are required to perform full-time military training (in AD or full-time National Guard duty status) for at least 15 days each year including travel time (32 U.S.C. 502).

(3) ADT is authorized to provide for full-time attendance at organized and planned specialized skill training, flight training, combat crew training, unit conversion training, refresher and proficiency training, officer acquisition training, professional development education programs, etc., for providing RC members with necessary skills and disciplines supporting RC missions. Authorized ADT must provide a primary training content to the recipient. Authorization for ADT shall be managed IAW DoD Directives established by the Secretaries concerned. Nontechnician personnel shall receive priority consideration for such training.

(4) AD for special work (ADSW) is authorized for personnel from applicable military or Reserve personnel appropriations for projects supporting active or RC programs, such as annual screening, operation of training camps, training ships, and unit conversions to new weapons systems, when such duties are essential to the organization. Projects supporting study groups, training site and exercises, short-term mission projects, and administrative support functions also are included. Authorization of ADSW shall be managed IAW DoD Directives established by the Secretary concerned. ADSW tours exceeding 180 days are accountable against AD strengths (regular, or RC AD end strengths, consistent with pay appropriations) IAW 10 U.S.C. 115(b)(1)(B). By DoD policy, those tours normally are limited to 139 days, or less, in 1 FY. Exceptions to the 139-day limit may be granted on an individual basis for specific mission requirements. Nontechnician personnel shall receive priority consideration for those tours. Short breaks in tours; i.e., 30 days or less, to circumvent that requirement, are not authorized.

(5) AD, other than for training or ADSW, including full-time National Guard duty, is authorized in support of RC missions, under 10 U.S.C. 265, 672(d), 678, 715, 3019, 3033, 3496, 8019, 8033, and 8496 and 32 U.S.C. 708. Personnel performing such duty are included in the FTS numbers for each RC under the collective title of Active Guard or Reserve (AGR), including Navy training and administration of Reserves (TARs) and all statutory tour personnel.

(f) Provide for Muster Duty (MD). (1) To meet the annual screening requirement established by § 102.6(b)(1), an authority designated by the Secretary concerned may order a member of the IRR to MD (established by 10 U.S.C. 687). MD shall include a minimum of 2 hours at the muster site and may not include more than 1 day, including travel, each calendar year. An allowance for MD shall be paid IAW 37 U.S.C. 433 and DoD Instruction 1215.7 at the rate determined by the DoD Per Diem Committee and included in the "DoD Military Pay and Allowances Entitlement Manual."

(2) In cases where a total of more than 1 day is required to meet the annual screening requirement, or in other specific circumstances approved under regulations issued by the Secretary concerned, ADT may be used instead of MD.

(g) Restrict Assignment Outside United States. A member of the RCs may not be assigned to AD on land outside the United States, its territories and possessions, until the member has completed the basic training requirements of the member's Armed Forces (10 U.S.C. 671(a)).

(h) Require Training Participation. The Secretaries concerned shall establish minimal standards for satisfactory participation at required training periods, which shall include the number and percentages of training periods for meeting the minimal standards. Individuals attending IDT periods are required to meet those minimal training standards. Those standards shall contain procedures for accounting for absences and excused drills, as necessary. Individuals voluntarily may attend extra IDT periods for points, IAW DoD Directive 1215.13.⁴

§ 102.5 Responsibilities.

(a) The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Reserve Affairs) (ASD(RA)) shall:

⁴See footnote 1 to § 102.1(a).

(1) Establish DoD policy and provide guidance for RC training and retirement categories.

(2) Establish policy guidance for the minimal training criteria and the AD requirements associated with each category.

(b) The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the United States Coast Guard (USCG) shall:

(1) Place all RC members in a RCC and TRC IAW criteria established in appendices A and D of this part.

(2) Ensure that plans and policies for the management of RCCs are consistent with this part.

(3) Ensure that RC members receive training and serve on AD IAW the minimum criteria established for each RCC in § 102.4(c).

§ 102.6 Procedures.

(a) Selected Reserve—(1) IDT. Except as specifically provided in paragraph (b) of this section, members of the Ready Reserve shall participate in 48 scheduled training periods each year. By DoD policy, that requirement applies to all members of Selected Reserve units (10 U.S.C. 270(a)(1) and 32 U.S.C. 502).

(2) AT. Except as specifically provided in paragraph (b) of this section, AT is required for all members of the Ready Reserve. By DoD policy, that requirement is limited to members of the Selected Reserve. For members of the Reserves, that training shall be for not less than 14 days (exclusive of travel time) each year except, as in paragraph (a)(2) of this section. Units of the National Guard are required to perform full-time military training for at least 15 days each year, including travel time.

(i) AT tours for individual mobilization augmentees (IMAs) or other Reservists assigned as an individual to any training categories ordered to AT at Headquarters, support organizations, or to activities not operating on Saturday, Sunday, or Federal holidays, normally are limited by DoD policy to 12 days excluding travel time; i.e., from Monday of the first week through Friday of the second week.

(ii) When required, members may be ordered to AT for longer periods than 12 days (excluding travel time), up to a maximum of 30 days each FY, for activities that enhance readiness, such as participating in mobilization exercises. Training may begin on days other than Monday, when special activities begin during the week.

(iii) AT normally is performed during one consecutive period. Split tours may be authorized for selected units or individuals, if required to meet training missions. Any additional costs must be justified fully. Authorization for variations in AT lengths shall be managed IAW DoD Directives established by the Secretaries concerned.

(3) Short Periods of AD Performed by Members of the Selected Reserve. Under 10 U.S.C. 672(d), 673, 673b, 3500, or 8500, that AD may not be substituted for training required by 10 U.S.C. 270 and by paragraph (a)(2) of this section, unless in the judgement of the Secretary concerned:

(i) AD service performed under 10 U.S.C. 672(d), 673, 673b, 3500, or 8500 is equivalent to the training that might have been performed under the authority of 10 U.S.C. 270 and paragraph (a)(2) of this section.

(ii) AD service under 10 U.S.C. 672(d), 673, 673b, 3500, or 8500, when combined with training required by 10 U.S.C. 270 and paragraph (a)(2) of this section constitutes an undue personal hardship.

(4) NPS Personnel. (i) Those personnel enlisted directly into an Armed Force who have not completed the basic training (IADT) requirements of that Armed Force. During war, the period of required basic training (or its equivalent) may not be less than 12 weeks. Exceptions for personnel with civilian-acquired skills may be authorized, as specified in the implementing regulations of the Military Departments.

(ii) The Secretaries concerned may require members enlisted for service in the Selected Reserve to participate in IDT periods before completing IADT. Those training periods may be with or without pay.

(iii) IADT, which includes basic military training and technical skill training, is required for all enlisted accessions. For NPS male enlistees who are between ages of 18½ and 26 years, that IADT shall be for a period of not less
